THAT INJUNCTION IS DISSOLVE

The Court relieved Messrs. Pitcher & Gray, on the sworn statement of Anson Pitcher. He swore on information and belief that never prior to ... 17, 1885, was the term "Boston Square Dealers" used by BLUETT, DALY & SULLIVAN, in advertising their business. A convenient way of ... facts, but if Mr. Pitcher can bend his morality to meet the ... getting rid of an injunction, we must stand it until the trial.

HERE ARE THE FACTS:

In the Daily Times, September 26, 1883, appears in display type the ... "Wait for the Boston Square-Dealing Clothing House, 13 Nadeau Block." ... Again in the Daily Times, October 16, 1883, a display "ad." ending, "If ... refunded if purchase not satisfactory. Boston Square-Dealers, 13 ... Block." And again, from a display "ad." in the Daily Times, dated ... ber 3, 1883, we quote, "Is it a success? Well you bet. The Boston ... Dealers are a way up in their business, which is Clothing." And ... Daily Times, Sunday, December 3, 1882: "No people more anxious ... quicker appreciate, or enthusiastically recognize improvement of ... methods, and no better illustration can be given that the great ... The Boston Square-Dealers." And so on, our advertisements run, ... the Los Angeles Times, but also the Herald, Santa Ana, Downey, ... and other papers.

It Makes 'Em Squeal But Pleases the People!

Bluett, Daly & Sullivan claim their own name, "The Boston One-Price Clothing House," and also claim the

BOSTON SQUARE-DEALERS

WELL-KNOWN AT 23 NORTH MAIN STREET.

It is hard to account for the check some people possess. By diligent search they find in '83 part of an ad. which reads Wait for the Boston Square-Dealing firm; and still another in '83 which reads, "You bet," we are away up, etc., The Boston Square-dealers, but have signed their name as the Boston One-Price Clothing House. Their advertisements in 1883 and 1884 used the term "One-Price Clothing" almost invariably without the name "Boston Square-Dealers," which term we do not find used by them at all after 1883, and then but a few times. Therefore, their chance to succeed in claiming the name of another firm is small. In different parts of the county they have large signs up which read, B. O. P. C. H., and have continuously styled themselves as the Boston One-Price Clothing House. Their sign on the front of their store reads the same, and they have never used the term Boston Square-Dealers as their name until they attempted recently to circumvent us by claiming a trade mark.

HAVE THE PUBLIC BEEN DECEIVED?

If Bluett, Daly & Sullivan are not from Boston and do not sell Boston clothing, we ask, have they deceived the people by putting out signs which read "Boston One-Price Clothing." Their customers have commenced to get their eyes opened, and this no doubt accounts for their loss of trade. We would advise them to put in a fine stock of Boston clothing or change their signs. In the meantime, customers who are looking for Boston clothing, will find a stock at our store from Smith, Richardson & Bates and other noted manufacturers of Boston.

AMERICAN FRUIT EVAPORATOR!

The most practical and reliable Fruit Evaporator made. It gives unobstructed hot air currents ABOVE and BELOW all fruit, thus insuring evenness of drying and no spoiled fruit. Beware of infringements. THE AMERICAN is pre-eminently the fruit-raisers' machine. Its sizes grade from domestic to manufacturing wants. It makes the highest quality of work with ordinary care in handling. There is no need of making anything else. Though we approve a slight use of sulphur, the AMERICAN is specially adapted for highest grade in unbleached work. It places fresh cut fruit first in highest and dryest heat; cures out surfaces at once and keeps them dry, thereby setting and making permanent the color, and also thereby, as in broiling steaks, securing the highest quality in product. We place our experience in evaporating at the disposal of our customers. In some cases this gratuitous service is of more value than prices paid us for evaporators. Sold by

THE succession of earthquakes occurring in the vale of Cashmere the past three or four days is one of the most remarkable upheavals of nature in modern times. The first day the shocks came at regular intervals of ten minutes. Whole cities were shaken down and the earth opened in seams and emitted sulphurous smoke and steam. Two hundred people were killed and many more injured. The suffering of people thus deprived of their homes and driven terror-stricken into the fields can hardly be imagined. Our telegrams this morning report the continuance of the shocks.

AMUSEMENTS.

MATERNA.—Los Angeles and Materna have seen each other, and both are happy—or ought to be. It was a large, a cultured and a kindly-disposed audience the great Wagnerian soprano smiled at and bowed to at the Grand Opera House last evening. And the audience, while a little slow in warming up to Materna's powerful melody, did nevertheless warm up to it with her second appearance, and from that forward gave the court singer as hearty an expression of their pleasure as she could have asked.

The most striking element in Materna's voice is its strength. It inspires us with confidence; it gives one his fill of pleasure without a misgiving. Allied to this strength there is the finest cultivation. Some of her notes in the middle register are of the sweetest and grandest that the human voice is capable of uttering. But the higher notes—"aye, there's the rub!" Materna executes them, and there let the expression stop. She executes them. It is with a perceptible effort. And if the great Wagnerian did not rive one of her high notes into tatters last night, and cast the tatters to the wind, then our tympanum goes to the base-drummer. But let us not be captious. Materna's is a glorious voice.

J. H. Rosewald's violin-playing is very finished and pleasing. He made an easy capture of the audience last evening, and was encored again and again.

Miss Neally Stevens, if the writer is not mistaken, is now renewing an acquaintance with the public of Los Angeles which she first formed under most favorable auspices a few years ago. She received warm words of praise then, and they will now be repeated to her with accrued interest. Her performance upon the piano is a triumph of art.

Signor Vincenzo Villani sang "Un Ballo in Maschera" and an aria from "Lucia." He was pleasantly received and encored.

"DOWN WITH HIM."

Gladstone Meets An Adverse Vote in the House.

INCREASED TAX ON JOHN BULL'S BEER

Is the Straw that Breaks the Premier's Back—Ultra Liberals and Tories Join Hands in the Fight.

A ssociated Press Dispatches to The Times.

LONDON, June 8.—The government has been defeated in a vote on the budget.

LONDON, June 8.—In the House of Commons Childers made a statement touching the spirit tax. Mr. Childers had no sooner done explaining the government's reason for not at present refunding the tax, than the Right Honorable Sir Michael Edwards Hicks Beach, Conservative, rose quickly and asked who it was that a Liberal Government, which ought to be economical, had to resort to extreme forms of taxation in order to meet an extraordinary expenditure of £1,000,000,000. This question was greeted with cheers from the Tory benches. Sir Michael went on and denounced the increased duty on spirits. He said that the receipts from spirits were already decreasing. He thought a small increase in the duty on tea would have been wiser and much more profitable. The government, he continued, should have raised the duty on wine, because wine was no more a necessity to life than beer or spirits. Sir Michael concluded by moving that the proposed increased duty on beer and spirits was inequitable in the absence of a corresponding addition to the duties on wine.

John K. Cross, Under Secretary for India, spoke for the Government, in answer to a number of questions concerning attacks reported to have been made on the Government by General Sir Peter Lumsden. Mr. Cross stated to the House that Sir Peter, since his arrival in London, had disavowed any intention to attack the Government. He did not consider himself responsible for incorrectly reported utterances attributed to him by journalists inclined to misrepresent him. Childers moved a second reading of the budget and in his supporting speech explained that the total increase in the beer and spirits duties England pays seven-ninths, Scotland one-ninth and Ireland one-ninth. Sir Charles Dilke supported the budget. He said that beer was already taxed enough. A further tax on wines would not be very productive and would injure the colonial trade.

Sir Stafford Northcote and others having spoken, Mr. Gladstone arose to reply. His remarks were received with prolonged cheers.

The government was defeated on the second reading of the budget, when it was rejected by 264 to 252.

When this result was announced Lord Randolph Churchill and Mr. Parnell jumped up on their seats and enthusiastically waved their hats. Tremendous excitement was caused by the announcement of the result of the division, and Gladstone immediately adjourned the House. It is confidently rumored that Gladstone will to-morrow tender his resignation.

The Parnellites and all Conservatives voted with the majority. The minority included Sir Michael Bass, brewer, and several Irish Liberals. Although strong whips had been issued many government supporters were absent.

THE SCENE IN THE HOUSE.

The following is an account of scenes in the House of Commons after the division. When the result of the division was announced, Gladstone, who had been leaning forward in his seat and cynically smiling, started, turned pale, and clenched his hands nervously together. The House immediately became a babel of confusion, members yelling, stamping and waving their hats, neckties and handkerchiefs. A tumultuous cheer came from the galleries, and Speaker Peel vainly howled for order. Parnellites pointed at Gladstone and yelled "That's the price of coercion!" "Down with him!" "Remember Buckshot Forster!" "Remember Miles Joyce!" Mr. Gladstone arose to move an adjournment, but stood in his place fully a minute before he could be heard.

CABINET SUMMONED.

LONDON, June 8.—The Cabinet has been summoned to meet to-day.

TIMES OPINIONS.

LONDON, June 9.—The Times editorial says: The resignation of the cabinet in the present condition of affairs must not be hastily decided upon. The government's duty is to consider whether such a course would not be a wrong to the country. A financial modus vivendi might easily be arranged by abandoning the increase in the duties on flour and spirits, without leaving Childers a larger deficit to carry forward to the next budget than would have been the case if eleven millions of the vote of credit had been spent instead of only nine million.

THE STANDARD.

The Standard, in an editorial, says: We cannot believe that the ministers will leave office. They have received a mortal stroke, but they must, whether they like it or not, agree to linger on until the general election. This very slender respite will be a trying one. Everything is unfinished, and hange in suspense. What Cabinet can succeed? If Conservatives are to rule, they must have authority, for which they must look to the constituencies. An election is impossible. The government cannot retire in their teeth, but can at any rate prove themselves conscious of their duties to the country by struggling manfully in their painful position. Party life must remain in suspense until the election.

The Standard says that Earl Spencer wanted the duration of the Crimes Act to be three years, but compromised on two years.

A bill drafted under Earl Spencer's direction has been considered by the Cabinet. It is a comprehensive measure of local self-government for Ireland, including the abolition of the vice-royalty.

ENGLAND.

An Angry Admonition to Earl Granville.

LONDON, June 7.—The Pall Mall Gazette contains an article which is apparently inspired by M. Lessar, of the Russian section of the Afghan Boundary Commission. The article admits that the settlement of matters in dispute with Russia is still unsigned, and attributes the present delay to the hair-splitting or quibbling of Granville. The article, more in anger than firmness, warns the East not to carry his dilatory game too far. It might become dangerous.

BEER DRINKERS INDIGNANT.

A mass-meeting attended by 4,000 persons was held in London yesterday to denounce the action of Mr. Childers, Chancellor of the Exchequer, for increasing the duties on beer and spirits.

ADAMS RENEGED.

The Daily Telegraph states that there is absolutely no foundation for the report of the assassination of Ameer Abdurrhaman, and that the report was telegraphed to the St. Petersburg Novwto from Vienna, and not from the Caucasus, as alleged.

ADAMS WINS.

Friday it was announced that judgment would be given to-day in the slander case of Charles Warren Adams against Lord Coleridge. Saturday a rumor was in circulation that a settlement of the case had been effected. To-day it was stated in court that, by mutual consent of parties interested, the delivering of judgment had been indefinitely postponed.

AN EXPLOSION.

LONDON, June 8.—Gas which had generated in the coal bunkers of the British iron turret ship Inflexible, at anchor off Portsmouth, exploded to-day. Fifteen of the crew were severely injured, three of them fatally. The vessel itself was somewhat damaged.

Discharging their Engineers.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—It is stated this morning that a large number of the engineer corps of the Central and Southern Pacific railroads have been discharged. This action excites great surprise, as many of the engineers had been in the employ of the company for many years. The only reason assigned for it is that the managers of the company have decided not to construct any more roads for the present.

State Viticultural Election.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—At a meeting of the State Viticultural Commissioners yesterday the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Arpad Haraszthy; Vice-President, C. A. Wetmore; Secretary, J. H. Wheeler; Treasurer, Charles Ellis.

WASHINGTON.

After the Postmaster—Civil Service Complications.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Everett P. Wheeler and Frederick Whiteride, of New York, counsel of the National Civil Service League, have written to the Postmaster-General requesting the removal of certain postmasters in different parts of the country for the violation of sections 11 and 12, Civil Service Law. These sections forbid solicitation of political subscriptions in Federal offices. The letters are accompanied by affidavits supporting the allegations, which will be investigated.

POST-OFFICE COMPLICATIONS.

Since the publication of the opinion of Attorney-General Garland, to the effect that Indians could not legally discharge the duties of postmasters, quite a number of letters have been received at the Post-office Department from Indian postmasters, written in excellent style and showing that the writers were men of good business ability, tendering their resignations. Another phase of the question has been presented by communications to the department in behalf of white men who married Indian wives and were adopted into different tribes in the Indian Territory. They state that they have become members of tribes and assisted in councils, and wish to know if they are affected by the Attorney General's decision. The legal aspect of their case is now under examination by the department.

HE IS IN MEXICO.

The Secretary of the Treasury has been informed that Andisonrie, the defaulting officer at the sub-treasury at New Orleans, has fled to Mexico, where he is interested in some mines.

NO CHOLERA.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The Secretary of State has received a dispatch from the Consul General at London, saying that there is no foundation for the rumor of an outbreak of cholera in England.

A DESPERATE CRIMINAL.

S. W. Green Attempts Suicide on His Way from Los Angeles.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—While S. W. Green, who is wanted at Newcastle, New South Wales, on the charge of forgery, was being brought to this city from Wilmington, where he had been arrested, he attempted to commit suicide near Merced. Green obtained a small knife from his wife who was sleeping in the bunk above that in which Detective Coffey and her husband were lying. Green requested Coffey to get him a drink of water, and the latter walked to the end of the car and got the drink. Green, who meanwhile had his face turned to the boarding of the car and told Coffey that he had changed his mind and would not attempt suicide. Detective thought something was wrong, and on turning Green over found that he had slit himself in the neck with the penknife, and was slowly bleeding to death. The train was stopped at Merced and the wound, which was quite deep, was sewed up. On arrival in this city the prisoner was placed in the receiving hospital.

Murphy's Will.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—The will of the late D. T. Murphy, of Murphy, Grant & Co., was filed for probate to-day. The estate is stated to be worth $2,250,000. The testator, after providing for the education of his younger children, bequeaths $5000 to Most Reverend Archbishop Riordan, with a request to apply the same to charitable purposes, indicating a preference for orphan asylums. He bequeaths his dwelling house in Albany, N. Y., to his mother and maiden sister, with an annuity of $1,500. Legacies are given to each of his brothers. To his wife he gives an annuity of $6000, and bequeaths to her also all his books, pictures and jewelry. The balance of the estate is to be divided share and share alike among his seven children. One of the provisions of the will directs that Adam Grant, now senior member of the firm of Murphy, Grant & Co., may if he chooses place the firm in liquidation and close up its affairs at the end of three years.

General Grant.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Dr. Douglas remained at the Grant residence last night, and when he left this morning he said the General suffered through the night and was suffering this morning with rheumatic pains, which resulted from the weather conditions attending a storm. The pains prevailed throughout the body, as well as in the throat, where additional soreness was felt. Dr. Douglas, all this, the General had rested fairly well throughout the night. Dr. Douglas is anxious to get his patient out of the city.

General Grant's New Work.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The Commercial Advertiser publishes nearly a page of extracts from General Grant's "Personal Memories" which will be published within a few months. The first volume is completed and the second nearly so. Extracts given, show the work to be written in sturdy and terse Anglo-Saxon, with here and there a touch of quiet humor. The declination is in spite of the General's manuscript, and is as follows: "These volumes are dedicated to the American soldier and sailor. U. S. Grant, New York, May 23, 1885."

Lunatic Asylum Burned.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., June 8.—At 12 o'clock last night a fire broke out in the right wing of the Eastern Lunatic Asylum. Before it could be got under control everything was destroyed. The buildings burned comprise the original ones of the institution, and were erected over 100 years ago. There were 300 female lunatics in the burning buildings, but all of them were rescued except one. The total loss is estimated at $126,000 to $140,000. Insurance about $40,000. The fire is believed to have resulted from some trouble with the electric light wires.

Found Dead.

SAN JOSE, June 8.—About 5 o'clock this morning a man who registered at the Pacific Hotel on Saturday as H. Brown, San Francisco, was found lying dead with a bullet wound in his head. He was about forty years of age and well dressed. There were no papers in his clothing which would help to identification.

Sunk in the Red Sea.

PARIS, June 8.—The French war ship Renard is reported to have been wrecked in the Red Sea. She was a dispatch gunboat and carried a crew of 150 men.

Fire at Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 8.—Three hundred houses, fifty shops and three mosques in the Stambol quarter of this city were destroyed by fire last night.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

The Post says J. E. Budd, of Stockton, Cal., has been appointed Receiver of the Land Office.

The President yesterday appointed Romulo Martinez United States Marshal for New Mexico.

General Rosecrans, the recently appointed Register of the Treasury, assumed the duties of the office yesterday.

Admiral Paaschen has been appointed to the command of the Zanzibar squadron in place of Admiral Knorr.

Cholera has made its appearance among the laborers on the Questa railway, and also at Rindle Buhn, the depot of the commissariat camp.

It is rumored that England has recalled Consul Kirk on the complaint of Germany that he was engaged in exciting the Sultan of Zanzibar against Germany.

The Berlin Zeitung says that peace has been restored in Cameroons. A German, Captain Bundemann, and an Englishman, Captain Young, have fixed the frontiers.

The first wheat of the season went aboard the ship North American at Port Costa yesterday morning. It came from Willows, Cal. It is of the Australian variety and of good quality.

The Mahdi has issued a proclamation, which has been extensively circulated in countries bordering upon the Persian gulf, stating that it is his intention to invade both Egypt and Arabia.

Advices from the West are to the effect that the Russians are taking the greatest care to prevent foreigners from communicating with Turcomans, and have even expelled Russians supposed to be corresponding with the Afghans.

Rangoon newspapers are discussing a separation of Burmah from India and the making of it a Crown colony. They complain of neglect from the Indian government. The Rangoon Chamber of Commerce supports the proposal.

Secretary Whitney received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of Commander Lewis Clark, commanding the United States Alliance at Key West. The Alliance was at once ordered to proceed to New York with the remains. There were no particulars of his death given.

Most of the Raiders Beyond the Border,

MAKING TROUBLE FOR THE MEXICANS

Colorado Aroused and Arizona Excited—Shrewd Guess Which the Redskins Play on Troops and Ranchmen.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

GUAYMAS, June 8.—News was received here last night of the appearance of a band of twenty Apaches near Nacosan, where they brutally murdered three Americans employed at a mine eight miles from that place. The names of the murdered miners are Peter Polmer, Peter McCurtain and H. J. Harrington. Reports also state that several Mexicans were murdered near there, but no names are given. The Governor has received word from General Crook that nearly all the renegades are now in Mexico or making for there.

THEY PLAY IT SHREWDLY.

DEMING, N. M., June 8.—Last night a small band of Indians raided Scott White's ranch, in Wood cation, Chirica hua mountains, ten miles southeast of San Simon station. They killed some beef cattle and drove off all his horses. The hostiles ascend the high peaks in the day time and get an accurate idea of the position and movements of the troops. At night they make a march of forty or fifty miles, taking what horses and stock they require from ranches en route. The Indians are all heading for Mexico. It is thought that nearly the whole band of one hundred and thirty odd, who left the reservation, are now south of the Southern Pacific railroad. General Crook is making preparations to follow the renegades into the Sierra Madres with Indian scouts and the necessary troops to conduct the campaign against them till either captured or exterminated.

CROOK THINKS THEY ARE OVER THERE.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—The following dispatch, dated the 7th, has been received from General Crook, at Deming, N. M.: "From a report from Lieutenant Davis, just received, it is probable that all the Indians have crossed the railroad, having got past the troops in Stein's Pass, except a party of six or seven bucks and a few women and children. Captain Mangus, who left the main party on the Magollon mountains. This party, it is assumed, is now west of Hillsboro, travelling south with Captains Chaffee and Wallace on their trail. The scouts think that the main part of the women and children are already in Mexico, though it is probable that Lawton may intercept them. I have some hope that Crawford, who left Lordsburg at 2 o'clock yesterday morning with scouts and a company of cavalry, may be able to intercept some of them. Davis has orders to join Crawford as soon as possible, who will then follow the trail into Mexico.

COLORADO ABOUSED.

DENVER, Col., June 8.—Congressman Symes to-day received a telegram from citizens of Lapiata county, Colorado, in which they stated that the southern Ute Indians have left their reservation in large numbers, and threaten to prevent stockmen from rounding up cattle on ranges. The message says that the Utes are moving westward. The danger to lives and property is imminent. The citizens implore the government to send instant relief. Judge Symes has forwarded a message to the President this evening and says that troops from Fort Lewis be sent at once to the scene of danger, and adds that unless prompt protection is afforded the frightful holocaust of New Mexico will be repeated on the soil of Colorado.

ARIZONA EXCITED.

TOMBSTONE, June 8.—The intelligence received yesterday that three men were killed in Sonora, together with information this morning of Apaches at Sweet Water's ranch, created an excitement here which was intensified by the arrival of several men with news of Indians at Swisshelm's. Captain Howard, commanding Company E, National Guard, telegraphed to Prescott for orders and received the following reply:

PRESCOTT, A. T., June 9.—Capt. H. G. Howe, of Tombstone: Pursue all marauding Indians and force the fighting. When a trail gets fresh don't camp, but push on. (Signed.) H. M. VANARMAN, Acting Governor.

A petition is in circulation to-day in the sending of representatives to Washington to show the true status of Indian affairs.

FAMINE.

It is Felt in West Virginia—Appeals for Help.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 7.—The situation in Jackson county is becoming serious. One hundred families are on the verge of starvation, and unless aid is speedily extended by the remainder of the State or the outside world, most disastrous results may be expected. Some of the more fortunate and influential people of the county and others who believe the condition of the inhabitants exaggerated, have heretofore denied the reports that have from time to time been published, stating that vegetables could not be raised till a new crop could be raised. But now much alarm prevails. Public meetings are being held in all the villages, and the local papers are printing appeals for aid. Last week meetings were held at White Pine and New Kentuck, at which citizens and others testified to the terrible destitution and suffering. The evidence of neighborhoods testified as to the extent of the famine. Many pitiful stories are being told. Hiram Dobb, the owner of a mill, said people would come to his mill by of a dozen a day, often walking a great distance, and begging for a pint or quart of meal, or bushel of corn. Others had a peck of grain or a few ears of corn to be ground. He knew men who had gone for five days without food and he himself would soon be suffering. J. H. Garrett said his neighbors were actually starving. John Smith, County Assessor, said that he knew of thirty-five families who were in danger of starvation at New Kentuck. An appeal for aid was signed by representatives of one hundred families. These people are mostly coal miners. One family is said to have subsisted for five days on lettuce, and men found were nearly dead.

Still After Ward and Trial.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Two more indictments were found by the Grand Jury to-day against Ferdinand Ward and James D. Fish, charging them with grand larceny in the first degree. Ward was arraigned in the Court of Oyer and Terminer to-day and pleaded not guilty to the indictments, with leave to withdraw his plea and demurrer on one indictment for stealing $19,000, and another for $110,000. The District Attorney moved that Ward be taken from Ludlow-street Jail and incarcerated in the Tombs prison. This was opposed by Ward's counsel. Judge Barrett decided that Ward shall remain in Ludlow-street Jail till his trial begins.

Tyrant, the Big Colt.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The Sporting World says: Tyrant is the name of the over racing men congregate. Everybody is now willing to concede that he is a race horse. We heard an offer of $40,000 for him declined with thanks. It will be interesting to see how the colt will acquit himself when he meets Wanda. They are both in the Tidal stakes, which will be run on the third day of the Sheepshead bay meeting. It will be a great betting race when the two meet, as both owners are sportsmen of the old-fashioned school when it comes to backing their opinions.

TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 1885.

Incendiaries and Incendiarism.

The bold and rascally operations of incendiaries in San José and Santa Clara county are attributed to the fiery oratory of the Communist, Dr. O'Donnell, Coroner of San Francisco, who seems to be the natural successor of Denis Kearney, the Sand Lout. The Times-Mercury occupies several columns in describing the incendiarism, which is published under the following headlines: "Arm! Arm!—Patrol Your Premises With Shotguns—Show No Quarter to Those Who are Applying Torches to Property—O'Donnell's Oratory Bears its Legitimate Fruit in Midnight Conflagrations—Fires on Every Hand—Fifty Thousand Dollars' Worth of Ashes at Milpitas—The Fires at Santa Clara—The Handsome Narrow-Gauge Station and Block's Winery Destroyed—One of the Arch-Fiends Arrested."

The events of May 30th are described under the sub-headings of "The Second Attempt," "A Third Alarm," "The Fourth Attempt," "Another Attempt," "Sixth Alarm," and "Two More;" while the events of May 31st are described under the sub-headings of "The First Fire," "Second and Third Fires," "Fourth Fire," "Fifth Fire," "Sixth Fire," "Seventh Fire," "Fires in Santa Clara," "The Devilish Incendiaries," "A Man Suspected," etc., etc. These head-lines furnish a sufficient indication of the dastardly and persistent efforts made by the criminals, whoever they may be, to fire the city. Dr. O'Donnell, while denying that he advised using the torch, has found it convenient to his himself back to San Francisco. His contemplated visit to Los Angeles—well, he had best postpone it if he has that regard for his personal safety which we ascribe to him.

It is stated authoritatively that the President has not the slightest disposition to yield to the persistent pressure made upon him for sweeping changes in the offices. He stands firmly by his civil service policy and pledges.—[Washington Star.

The Star ought to be, and is, good authority on such matters; but Senator Dan Voorhees is out with the unqualified statement that the Republicans have got to go—all of them. He says the President told him so, point blank and at short range; that he meant to leave no Republican in office whom he has power to turn out. He promises to "get around to it" as soon as possible, and set the axe at work with energy and dispatch. This is the sort of civil service reform that suits the Democrats, and ought not to be violently objected to by the Republicans. But the Democratic administration have "them offices," and let it cease playing hypocrite about its feelings and intentions.

In the case, however, of officers who have to be confirmed by the Senate, it might be the part of discretion for the President to go slow in the business of turning out incumbents against whom there are no charges, before the expiration of their terms, for the Senate may consider it its duty, as it is its province, to refuse to sanction the act, which it would do by refusing to confirm the Democratic successor whom the President may name. That would be awkward and embarrassing for all concerned.

PROFESSOR GILLIAM'S prediction that in 1890 the blacks in this country will outnumber the whites by nearly 150,000,000 is refuted by Mr. Henry Gannett in an interesting paper entitled, "Are We to Become Africanized?" Mr. Gannett takes the relative standing of blacks and whites at each decade from 1790 down to 1880, and shows that from the past history of the two races no such increase of blacks over whites is possible. Ascording to this data the proportion of whites to blacks has steadily grown through the ten censuses, and Mr. Gannett argues that this proportion will increase favorably to the whites in the future. Mr. Gannett also demonstrates the unreasonableness of the theory in Tourgee's "Appeal to Cæsar" by deductions from the same statistics employed by Tourgee, and in this respect proves that figures, though they cannot lie, can be made to tell several stories, according to the manner in which they are manipulated.

SAN BERNARDINO'S new three-ply, all-wool-and-a-yard-wide Democratic daily has risen up, like old Bill Allen, and come forth. It is small but hot, and called "The Morning Hour." It does not appear to be happy over the new Democratic administration, and lays down a perpendicular code of Democratic principles, chief among which is "the time-honored Democratic war-cry, 'To the victors belong the spoils'"—by a large majority, so to speak. This new Democratic Boanerges of the bovine bailiwick of Bernardino has hopes and fears, it declares, and among the latter—

It fears that illiterate, arrogant, and corrupt men, aided by unscrupulous corporations, may manacle our government and plunder the people.

Are we to understand from the above that the "Morning Hour" is afraid of Cleveland's administration?

THE Prescott Miner estimates that the calf crop of Yavapai county this year will be 30,000, which at an estimated value of $10 per head will increase the taxable property of the county by $300,000.

JOSEPH'S TURN.

Anselmi Gets In His End of the Long S.

The Times detailed the manner in which Deputy Sheriff Joe Anselmi, of San Gabriel, fell victim to a cruel but unintentional joke; how Deputy Sheriff Russell, of Downey, and his companion were "suspicioned" as horse-thieves at San Fernando; how the minions of the law got on the track of the alleged equine abstractors, and how Anselmi followed the scent far on toward Apache-land, while the innocent cause of all this commotion was here. It was very, very funny; but when Joe got back from the desert and read the Times, the joke didn't loom up remarkably in his eyes. It looked incomplete to him, and he set out to finish it off. When Sheriff Gard got back from the North yesterday, the following document was awaiting him:

SAN GABRIEL, June 2nd, 1885.
Gen. E. Gard to J. Anselmi, Dr.
Following dis horse and buggy, two men in it, 90 miles.....$22.50
Money paid by me.....8.00
$30.50

And now Joe feels that the laugh has emigrated down to his end of the line.

Costly Delay.

When will the authorities of the city proceed to exterminate the dangerous scale bugs in the Plaza, as directed by the City Council? The continuation of the pests in the heart of the city is a disgrace to the city's enterprise and also a direct menace to every orchard within a days' journey. It is well known that the white scale was carried into San Gabriel on a single potted plant not six inches in height, and it has already cost thousands of dollars to fight the progeny of the few insects that were to be found upon that little rose bush.

In the Plaza the large trees are literally alive with the white scale and it is spreading every day. Men from the outside districts who have spent laborious years in the care of an orange orchard, and have seen it come to be productive, it being their chief dependence for a future livelihood, now look with dismay upon the criminal neglect of the city in permitting the spread of this pest, which is so fatal to citrus fruits everywhere.

Will not the proper officer proceed to put an end to the white scale in the city parks, if he has to cut down and burn every tree and shrub in them?

Advertising That Pays.
From the Printers' Register.]

Nothing can be truer than the fact that the most successful merchants are those who advertise to the best advantage. It is not always the man who spends the most money in advertising that secures the greatest returns, but he who, having an article that people want, makes the fact known to them in a business-like way. It is conceded by most who have made the deepest study of advertising that the most direct and effectual way of reaching the public is through the press. An advertisement inserted in a periodical paper, be it daily, weekly, monthly or semi-annual, is seen by the very people than in all the thousand and one other forms of advertising combined. It is then of the utmost importance that the display lines in a paper be made as pleasing and attractive as possible, and that there should be some degree of harmony between the article offered for sale and the type used to call attention to it. In every country throughout the world do publishers go to the same trouble and expense in making their advertising pages attractive as they do in the United States, where every line of type or every illustration is made to catch the public eye in freely used. In England the advertising pages of the daily paper are as bare of artistic effect as the white paper they are printed on.

Fine Lots at Auction

Over 300 Building Sites for Sale near Center of City, on Brooklyn Tract,

Tuesday, June 16, 1885, at 2 o'Clock P. M.

Will be Sold at Auction by Alfred Moore, Auctioneer.

The tract on which these fine lots are situate is but one mile from the Postoffice, on the Aliso street new bridge, in the suburbs of which are located the fine residences of Hon. H. Perry, Dr. Worthington, Captain Hutchinson, Samuel Rose, Esq., etc., etc., and the Fashion Course and Driving Park. Both Brighton and Aliso cars pass the property every few minutes, thus rendering a first class property and terms of sale. There is no healthier place in Los Angeles. The lots are of good shape for gardens and building purposes, and the tract is supplied with water from a pure mountain stream and has been used as a reservoir to supply the Fashion Course of a year's standing. Streets 60 feet wide, running the full length from Brooklyn avenue through the entire tract to Wabash avenue and the Missouri and Boston addition. Observation car every 5 minutes, only a minute's walk from the street car line, and under the direct charge of the Superintendent of the Los Angeles Railway Company. Auction sale to commence at 2 o'clock p. m. sharp, and continue from day to day until all are sold. The company's water mains run in every direction. The neighborhood is improving rapidly, and fine buildings are now in course of erection on the property adjacent. The property needs only to be seen to be appreciated, and every one on the ground charmed with the magnificent panorama there presented to view. It is a gem of a location.

From the main entrance to the property, on Aliso street, will be seen a large building, built in front of the tract, which is a first-class boarding house, with a full basement and two stories, with a tower, and is finished in the most modern style. From the tower a view can be had of the entire tract, and a splendid view of the mountains, valleys, and the whole of the city of Los Angeles, and clear down to the sea at Santa Monica, including Santa Catalina. In the immediate foreground it takes in East Los Angeles, backed up by the Sierra Madre and the snow-capped mountains. To the east and entrance left may be seen

ART.

The Coming Loan Exhibition of the N. S. G. W.

CATALOGUE OF PICTURES RECEIVED

Which Adorn the Walls of Opera House Hall—A Brilliant Exhibition Ensured.

Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey, the artists, who accepted the task of hanging the pictures of the Art Loan Exhibition of the Native Sons of the Golden West, were busily engaged Saturday and Monday in supervising the work. The opening, set for 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, had to be deferred until to-day, in consequence of an imperfect arrangement of the gas burners, necessitating their re-setting.

The exhibition has been favored by contributions of notable pictures from San Francisco, Sacramento and other cities of the State, and by many works of high merit that belong upon the walls of Los Angeles studios and parlors. Mrs. Margaret E. Crocker sends eight paintings from the celebrated Sacramento gallery founded by her. One of the chief attractions of the exhibition is a picture sent from San Francisco by Alex Badlam. It is the master conception of the French artist, Francois Girard, entitled "The Holland Fish Market." The painting, before it came into Mr. Badlam's possession, was owned by Samuel Brannan, who purchased it at a cost of $12,000.

In point of art many of the local pictures received are said to rank well up with those contributed from distant collections.

The studio of Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey is represented by a number of choice pieces.

A competent art critic was employed at the inception of the project to pass upon all pictures offered, and he has performed his task in a most discriminating manner. "The result will be," said Mr. McCloskey, "that we shall have a collection not only creditable to Los Angeles, but one which would command respect in any of the art centers of Europe or America."

Following is a list of the contributors and pictures:

Loaned by Mrs. Margaret E. Crocker, Sacramento: The Sleeping Beauty, by A. Walther; Idlewild, the summer home of Mrs. Crocker, on the California shore of Lake Tahoe, by Norton Bush; View on the Merced River, by Wm. Keith; The First Shave, by Aug. Heujen Munchers; The Reading of the Letter, by Eisenmann; Reception—The Morning After the Wedding, after Jordan; Love-making, by Dantieschroder; Traveling Coppersmith, by F. J. Reinke.

Loaned by Alex. Badlam, of San Francisco: Holland Fish Market, by Francois Girard in 1815, for Joseph, brother of Napoleon Bonaparte, sold by him in 1837 for $18,500, brought to California by Samuel Brannan.

Loaned by Mrs. J. C. Winans, San Mateo: After the Crucifixion, old Italian painting, artist unknown; (this picture was taken from the altar of a noted convent in Italy over two hundred years ago as booty after a siege;) the Madonna, Infant Christ and St. John, by Carlo Maratti, taken from his famous pictures of Madonna as Carluccio della Madonne, painted about the last of the seventeenth century; Christ After the Temptation, by Ary Scheffer (the school), and the eighteenth century—"then the devil leaveth Him, and behold, angels came and ministered unto Him," St. Matthew, c. iv.

Loaned by Walter S. Maxwell, Los Angeles: Christ Before Pilate, etching of Munkasy's famous painting of same name; Head of Chinese Girl, by Theodore Worms; black and white sketch, view on the Hudson, by Julian Rix; Bunch of White Grapes, by A. J. H. Way; Bunch of Black Grapes, by A. J. H. Way.

Loaned by Walter S. Moore: Indian Encampment, by Jules Tavernier; Black and white sketch, by Julian Rix; Sunset, by Julian Rix.

Loaned by R. M. Widney: Portrait, by Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey.

Loaned by Sanborn, Vail & Co.: Decorated Mirror, by Rodriguez.

Loaned by T. B. Clark: View on Mara, by Defaust.

Loaned by Mrs. Wm. Pridham: Sunset, by Julian Rix.

Loaned by owner: Landscape, by Jean Carot.

Loaned by owner: Study, a girl's head, by Butler.

Loaned by A. F. Harmer: A Study, by Thomas P. Anshutz.

Loaned by Colonel J. G. Howard: The Penitent, artist unknown; The Colosseum, artist unknown; Lavreil Bronze, Huguenot; Lavreil Bronze, Ligueur; Old Flemish Landscape, artist unknown.

Loaned by Rutherland Hutton: Portrait, by Inman.

Loaned by Hampton Hutton: Portrait, by Inman.

Loaned by Mrs. Mylars, San Bernardino: Miniature, painted in 1780.

Loaned by Dr. de Saigthy: Tableau, de Leeuw, J. Lieston; White Mountains, by Mrs. de Saigthy; Lanscape, by Pelle; Bronze Bust, water color sketch, by Jas. Hoobolser (amateur); Hungarian Lowlands, by Telgrad.

Loaned by J. E. Plater: Flower Piece, by White; Flower Piece, by White.

Loaned by H. L. Macnell: Yosemite from Artist's Point.

Loaned by M. Straus, San Francisco: "Pounding the Mission," by M. Straus; Mission Dolores, by Norton Bush; Cypress Grove to found the Mission of San Carlos, near Monterey, in 1770.

Loaned by J. V. Wachtel: The Lazzaroni, India ink sketch, by Butler.

Loaned by Thos. E. Rowan: Chinese Silk Picture; over 200 years old.

Loaned by Judge A. Brunson: Swiss Landscape, by Tellars.

Loaned by G. W. Burton: The Confidantes, by Rosetinerd.

Loaned by Mrs. Chandler, New York: Water-color sketch, In Music Mountains, by A. F. Harmer.

The work of Mr. Harmer will be viewed with more than ordinary interest when it is known that this talented artist is for a few weeks sojourning in Los Angeles, after a life of three years in the wilds of Mexico with General Crook. The painter is braved all dangers incident to such a life, for the purpose of painting the characteristics of the race. Mr. Harmer has acquired the material for a great work and is now looking for a suitable location for his labor. He is best known, perhaps, to our community through his illustrations in Harper and other publications.

Loaned by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. McCloskey: A portrait, by W. and A. McCloskey; Snow-balls; Poppies from Colorado; California Blossoms; A sketch on the Plains, Colorado; Colorado Wild Flowers; Portrait.

Loaned by A. F. Harmer: A Study, by Thos. P. Anshutz. This is a characteristic exponent of the new school of painting, in the careful handling of tone, the thoroughness of anatomy, and truthfulness to nature in the graceful posing of a simple study. Mr. Anshutz is the Assistant Professor in the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Philadelphia. While Mr. Harmer regretted his inability to furnish a finished picture by this noted artist, he yet confers a favor in permitting even a sketch of such power and breadth to be placed in the exhibit.

Loaned by W. A. Clinton: The collection of Mr. Moorenhaut, late French Consul (deceased), embracing the following pictures: Peace, War, Battle Scene, Scene During Franco-Prussian War.

Loaned by Mr. J. N. Griffith: A Grand Signor, by Yoschoy; A Mistress to the Grand Signor, by Yoschoy; Lake Geneva, by Carmienche; Mountains in Denmark, by Carmienche; Yosemite Falls, by Thos. Hill.

Loaned by A. F. Coronel: Six water-color pictures, illustrating the conquest of Cortes; the original brass cannon used to fire a salute by Father Junipero Serra at the founding of the California missions; assortment of Indian trinkets, pottery, etc., from Old Mexico.

Go to the Headquarters, 209 North Main street, Downey block, for boots and shoes.

Are You Going East?

BRIEFS.

Three deaths yesterday.

The mercury ran unusually thin yesterday.

The Eagle Corps anniversary is tonight.

The shipments of oranges have nearly petered out.

The Orizaba sails north to-day and the Eureka to-morrow.

Chief Engineer Frank R. Day has been presented with a handsome belt by John D. Gall, of Stockton.

The Pomona arson case engrossed Justice Ranney's time yesterday.

A Holiness band held forth on the Courthouse steps Sunday afternoon.

The case of Louise C. Perkins vs. Lucky Baldwin will be called to-morrow.

Sheriff Gard nabbed at San Pedro, Sunday, a fellow wanted for murder in Fresno county.

The examination of Frank Toal for assault to murder his wife comes off before Justice Austin at 10 a. m. to-day.

John Cantlin and Robert Mail, on trial for battery, were fined $5 and $3 respectively by Justice Austin yesterday.

Capt. P. M. Darcy got in Sunday from the north with Wm. Williams, who stole a horse and buggy, May 23d, from Harthorn and Brown.

Filed for record in the Recorder's office yesterday: Deeds, 22; mortgages, 10; satisfactions, 7; miscellaneous, 4; marriage licenses, 2.

Judge Brunson delivered an elaborate written opinion yesterday, sustaining the ordinance which requires Chinese wash-houses to close at 9:30 p. m.

The District Attorney yesterday filed information against Jesus Figueros for murder; Wm. Hogan, Thomas Finnerty and Charles Sattler for burglary.

A letter from Chief Justice Waite to a resident of our city states that Mr. Waite and his family are to sail for Europe on the 20th inst., and expect to return to America in September.

Mr. B. R. Haines denies the soft impeachment that he was the prime mover in the Maine celebration last Saturday, and he gracefully waiving the honor in favor of Mrs. D. G. Stephens, who first suggested the affair. Well, it was a good picnic, anyhow.

Deputy Sheriff Aguirre and Special Officer Berry arrested at Anaheim, early Sunday morning, Gregorio Lopez, who has been stealing mules in San Diego county. They had a long trip, going first to Spadra and thence to Anaheim without rest.

The San Soucie Dramatic Club of San Gabriel will play the well-known farce, My Turn Next, at Alhambra Hall, Tuesday evening, June 9th. Miss M. A. Lester will give some vocal selections, assisted by Miss Mollie Hobbs as pianist, Mr. Foxby as cornetist, and a popular violinist. Those who attend will have a good time.

As will be seen in this morning's telegraphic dispatches, S. W. Greene, the New South Wales forger captured here by Officer Coffey, Chief Horner and Special Lindheimer, attempted suicide on the way to San Francisco. His wife, who almost cursed him here for not killing himself when arrested, furnished the knife—and the pluck.

J. A. Sherman keeps the second fruit-stand south of the post-office. Sunday, a drunken fellow with three companions came along and tried to get away with a pocketful of apricots. When Sherman protested, the fellow tried to strike him. Sherman knocked two of them down into the street, and a third through a screen door, as they assaulted him. Light fines were imposed for the assault.

The Evening Express yesterday stated that a rebel flag was flying over the rink at Willmore, (Long Beach). Citizens of that place promptly denied the allegation, when interviewed through the Times telephone, and expressed indignation that a Los Angeles newspaper should publish such a false statement. No attempt has been made at Long Beach to hoist the flag, and the citizens would see to it, without the aid of outside help, that no attempt should succeed.

Think of the Price.

Six hundred dollars is the subscription price to the splendid lots in the Childs tract, centrally located, worth more than double the price, and at less than half the amount of far East Los Angeles property.
